

Kyber Security Takes Home Golden Datto Award at DattoCon19

Fairfield, CT, June 24, 2019 – Kyber Security took home the Partner of the Year Golden Datto award at DattoCon19, Datto’s seventh annual partner conference that welcomed more than 2,900 attendees from 24 countries around the globe. Each year, the Golden Datto awards are presented to the best of the best among Datto’s partner community. This year, the awards were given across nine categories recognizing a range of talented, world-class MSPs.

Kyber Security took home the Partner of the Year Golden Datto Award. Kyber has made a commitment to not only offering Datto as their business continuity solution, but supporting Datto in the promotion of our products and our support of the channel community. They are true advocates for Datto, and are always willing to participate in webinars, peer to peer conversations, presentations, and panels. They also spend the time giving continual feedback on how we can continue to improve everything from product to partner programs, and have contributed significantly to Datto’s ongoing success.

“Our partners are critical to the small and medium-sized business community, and we’re proud to honor the top performing partners with the Golden Datto awards at the event each year,” said Rob Rae, Vice President of Business Development at Datto. “We’re so excited for Kyber for earning the Partner of the Year Golden Datto and demonstrating their commitment to growing their business and helping their clients succeed.”

“We are honored to take home our second Golden Datto award and even more excited to be the Partner of the Year. Datto is an awesome partner to work and we are grateful for their support,” said Lynn Souza, CEO of Kyber Security. “I am proud to accept this award on behalf of my team for the work they’ve accomplished and the constant growth and achievements they strive for every day. Thank you, Datto!”
